These bagels are hot and fresh from Baz's oven, frozen at their optimal point of freshness and shipped immediately to your door for delivery the next day.

Eating your bagels the day they arrive?

Warming Instructions (optional):

PREP: Preheat your oven to 300°F and heat the bagels on an open rack for 5 to 10 minutes. Slice and lightly toast to your preference and spread with soft butter or your favorite shmear! (Bagels can also be sliced and placed directly in the toaster).

Saving your bagels for later?

Freeze your bagels immediately upon arrival. To defrost, leave your bagels out at room temp for 2-3 hours or overnight. Preheat your oven to 300°F and heat the bagels on an open rack for 5 to 10 minutes. Slice and lightly toast to your preference and spread with soft butter or your favorite shmear! (Bagels can also be sliced and placed directly in the toaster).

Note: Bagels can be frozen for up to a month but are best enjoyed within 1-2 weeks.

ABOUT OUR PARTNER - BAZ BAGEL

Bordering Soho and Little Italy in Manhattan's Nolita neighborhood, Baz Bagel specializes in fresh, hand-rolled bagels and flagels (flatter, wider bagels). Made by hand the old-fashioned way, they embody all the flavor and character that make the New York specialties legendary.

Everything you love about a good bagel can be found in each and every Baz bagel. Made in small batches with dough that's allowed to rise slowly, rolled by hand, kettle-boiled and cooked in a classic rotating-tray oven on burlap-covered boards, they're crusty on the outside, chewy on the inside, and utterly memorable for their rich, tangy taste. High gluten flour promises perfect texture, while malt, the old-school bagel-makers' secret ingredient, in the dough helps with authentic, traditional taste. Thinner and smaller with a pronounced hole in the middle, they're everything the famed NY bagel used to be. Their flagels (flatter, wider bagels with more crust ratio) and bagel chips are made with the same integrity and care.
